

International Studies Seminar Series

© One Line Man, totolia.com

Winter Term 2021/22

Mondays, on ZOOM (for exceptions see below)

| | | | |
|--|---|--------------------------|--|
| November 8 th - joint event with CPPE - | 11:45 (on site event in Y311) Legal Identity for All? Unequal Access to Civil Registration and Citizenship Rights Imke Harbers (University of Amsterdam) | January 10 th | 11:45 Party Cues and Support for Eurobonds. A Survey Experiment in Five Countries Björn Bremer (MPIfG) |
| November 15 th | 17:00 (due to time difference) The Point of Attack: Where and Why Does Oil Cause Armed Conflict in Africa? Darin Christensen (UCLA) | January 24 th | 17:00 (due to time difference) The Insiders' Game: Elites, Democracy, and War Elizabeth Saunders (Georgetown University) |
| November 29 th | 11:45 Violence Patterns in Autocratic and Transitioning Regimes: Evidence from African States Clionadh Raleigh (University of Sussex) | | |
| December 13 th | 17:00 (due to time difference) The Evolution of Partisan Differences in COVID-19 Health Behavior in the United States Thomas Pepinsky (Cornell University) | | |

To attend, please sign up for our email-list at:

– mailman.uni-konstanz.de/mailman/listinfo/intstudies

The links for accessing the events will be distributed shortly beforehand through this mailing list. For additional information consult: – polver.uni.kn/fachbereich/aktuelles/veranstaltungen/kolloquium-international-studies

The series brings together scholars and students interested in current research on international politics (covering conflict, development, international political economy, international organizations, and European integration).